

Hi Dean,

We hope you've found some of the tips we've shared useful, and that some of our example spreadsheet printouts have been helpful?

Well, keep reading - at the bottom of this email we have one more extra special offer for Boho Weddings fans!

So, now that you're fully armed with a planning strategy using the guides in our e-book, you may want to know more about our Gold Kit, containing the companion Spreadsheet Pack, so you can really get your wedding plan moving.

You're probably thinking you don't want to spend hours setting up a spreadsheet when you'd rather be shopping for wedding dresses, rings and tracking down your photographer.

The good news is... you won't need to with our Spreadsheet Pack! It will provide you with organisational bliss from the very beginning. It is exactly what we used to plan our own wedding last year, so we've done all the hard work for you.

Plus, because it's built on the power of Google Sheets, you can share access with your partner, and print copies for those that need them on the day - all whilst knowing it's safe and sound, constantly backed up in the cloud.

If you go for it, you'll have instant access to all the juicy features listed below. You'll get both blank templates for you to begin your own planning, and you'll get the fully completed versions from our own wedding to give you some inspiration.

Wedding Wish List

- This is where you come together as a team to decide on the key priorities for your wedding.

Wedding Planner

- Summary: All the key details, such as action list progress, total budget, guest list numbers and more.
- Action List: Your to-do list organised into categories with progress status and due dates.
- Research: A place to store all the links and ideas that cross your mind.
- Budget: Plan your spending and then keep on top of it to make the most your hard earned money.
- Guest List: All your guest's details in one place so no-one important will be forgotten.
- Timetable: A complete list of timings for the big day so everyone knows when and where they need to be.
- Inventory: Keep track of all the bits and bobs that are vital - from the rings to the place name cards.
- Catering: A detailed list of all your food and drink for the day.
- Suppliers: Contact details for your suppliers, so you know who to call to avert a crisis!
- Photos: A list of all the planned photos, so that your photographer knows what to expect.
- Music: All your music planned for the day - especially useful if you're arranging most of it yourselves.

Price Comparison

- Keep track of all your supplier quotes so that you see which option gives you the best value. Being armed with the numbers is your top weapon when it comes to negotiating.

Discount Offer for the Gold Kit

Owners of our wedding planning e-book can get the Gold Kit, which contains the complete Spreadsheet Pack, for just £20, instead of the usual £27, by using the discount code at the back of the book. Click here to go straight to the Gold Kit, or read on for an extra special offer!

Yet Another Boho Special Offer

As you have signed up through the Boho Weddings special offer, we'd love to give you an extra 50% discount.

All you have to do is email us with a short, honest review of the e-book and a rating out of 5 that we can use on our website. For this kind act, we'll send you a code for a further 50% discount off the Gold Kit with all its Spreadsheet Pack goodness! Do hurry though - this offer will only last until the end of July.

Still Not Sure?

Just in case you're still not sure, and you would like a more visual overview of the Spreadsheet Pack, we've got one last little extra for you...

You can download the Spreadsheet Pack user's guide which contains a series of screenshots for each sheet, with the main features highlighted - just click here.

As ever, we hope we've been of help, but we always want to do more. So please let us know if you have any questions or comments - just reply to this email or visit our social media pages and ask away.

Happy planning!
